1. Although there are no unusual troop concentrations along the Macedonian frontier, the most recent Yugoslav Order of Battle information indicates that the Yugoslav Ninth Army is located in and around Skoplje and the Seventh Army is located in and around Nis, with the main concentrations of Yugoslav troops and armored divisions on the Rumanian-Hungarian borders.
2. The conclusion has been reached   on Yugoslavia and Bulgaria that such Bulgarian troops as are located along the Yugoslav-Bulgarian border are insufficient to effect more than a holding action to contain the Yugoslav Seventh and Ninth Armies.
3. Reports indicate that there has been some increase of Bulgarian forces in Sofia, Dupnitsa, and Gorna Delumaya, with only normal garrison strength in the Petrich area.
